

Marcos Milagres & Naimah Project

Marcos Milagres, Bassist and composer originally from Rio de Janeiro, Brasil, with a vast and representative career in the genre of jazz and world music is, this time, the host of this group "Naimah Project", a project where Latin rhythms, jazz improvisation, the subtle suggestion of classical music and cosmopolitan conceptions of each implicit musician enrich the distinctive formula of this project.

Mexico City is a meeting point for artists of various nationalities and the music has been highly favored by their languages and roots complemented by the musical atmosphere of this city.

Naimah Project speaks from the soul, from the state of happiness and passion, stories and countries that reside in friendship and sense of creating and sharing the musical brotherhood.

The music of "Naimah Project" is comprised of original compositions by Marcos Milagres and Vladimir Alfonseca.

Currently, this group is composed of Marcos Milagres on bass and double bass; of Mexico: Vladimir Alfonseca on guitar; Enrique Nativitas on drums; Diego Franco on saxophone and Cuba, Fernando Acosta (Jr.).
